

It is often said that 'Every picture tells a story' or that 'a picture tells a thousand words'

What does this picture tell us about Britain during the First World War?

1) Write a short mindmap to answer the question above

2) Write a caption for this picture in which you explain who you think these people are.

3) Write a funny alternative caption.

Walter Tull - an Officer, a Footballer and a Gentleman

We are going to start investigating the life of Walter Tull, an amazing man, who was a genuine pioneer (someone who does something before anyone else) but has, until recently been 'hidden from history'.

Look at the three sources that you have been given (Document One - Birth Certificate, Document Two - Death Certificate of Walter's mother and Document Three - The Tull Family Tree).

- 1) Using Walter Tull's birth certificate write down where and when Walter was born and the name of his mother and father.
- 2) Using the Death Certificate of Walter's mother write down when she died and what she died from
- 3) Using the Tull Family Tree write down the name of Walter's brothers and sisters, their dates of birth and death.
- 4) Who did Walter's father remarry after the death of his first wife? What was their relationship?
- 5) By 1897, at the age of 9 Walter was an orphan, what do you think happened to him and his brother Edward?
